BUSINESS RELATED SOCIAL MEDIA SURVEY

Web-based and social media is important to the success of artists, and also the organizations and businesses that represent them. We encourage you to have an online presence of some kind to promote your work. We take an active interest in following our artists' business-related sites online so as to better promote their work. We interact with and share our artist's online content. We ask that our artists interact with and share our posts as well. Online promotion is mutually beneficial—it: creates interest and awareness; engages loyal supporters; increases traffic and event attendance; and encourages the sale of your work. If you have an online presence, please provide links, handles, etc. for any that apply below; leave blank any that are not applicable.
